

This is to certify that
Guernsey Schools Library Service

- Are committed to playing a part in ensuring that all children can find authentic representations of themselves in books, as well as seeing those who are different from them.
- Understand the wide-ranging nature of the term ‘diversity’ to encompass race and heritage, disability, gender and gender identity, sexual orientation, age, socio-economic status, religion, and culture.
- Understand ‘inclusive books’ to mean great mainstream stories, not isolated as a separate genre or segregated strand of literature.
- Aim to keep up to date with matters surrounding diversity and inclusion.

Core commitment

Ensure that books and book events are accessible to as wide an audience as possible.

Supplementary commitments

Seek out and support those who create and curate high-quality inclusive books.

Sign up to relevant newsletters to keep in touch with developments.

Inclusive Minds

Signed

29 November 2016