Schools' Library Service
Guille-Allès

Stay-At-Home Activity Sheet

The Tudors!

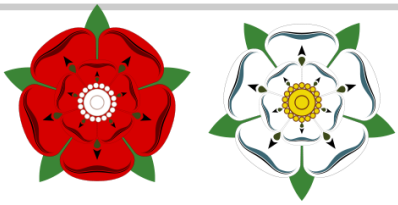
Are you a research detective? How good are you at finding information? Why not put your investigative skills to work and try to find out the answers to the following questions, puzzles and fun activities to test your enquiry knowledge!

Where to find the information

Go to slsguernsey.gg and find your school under 'students'

Select Britannica and use the password 'guernsey' to log in

Type 'Tudors' into the search bar and access The Tudors page



These flower emblems have something to do with The War of the Roses.

See if you can find out what each flower represents!

Write your answers below:

The red rose belonged to the...

_____

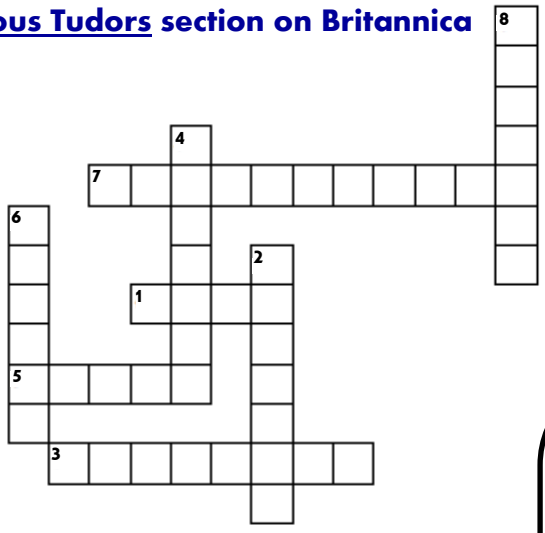
and

The white rose belonged to the...

_____

Famous Tudors Crossword

See if you can find the answers from the Famous Tudors section on Britannica



ACROSS

1. Henry VIII's Lord Chancellor, Thomas _____
3. Henry VIII's second advisor, Thomas _____
5. Famous Tudor adventurer, Sir Francis _____
7. The most famous Tudor playwright, William _____

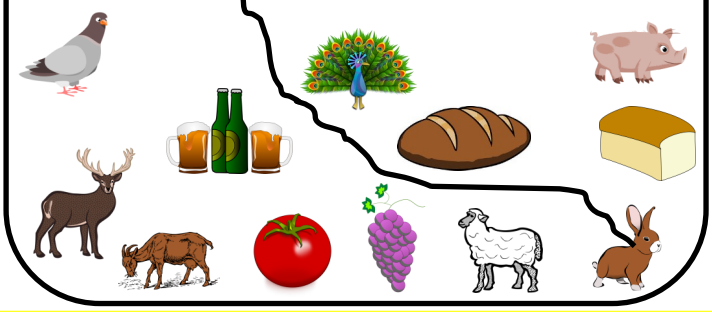
DOWN

2. Another famous playwright, John _____
4. And another famous playwright, Christopher _____
6. The Spanish _____ , defeated by the English in 1588
8. Henry VIII's Portrait artists, Hans _____

WHO ATE WHAT?? See if you can match up who ate what food in Tudor times by reading the Life in Tudor times section on Britannica.

Rich Tudors

Poor Tudors



The 'Terrible' Tudors Timeline

See if you can use Britannica to fill in the timeline below in the correct order, with the names AND dates of reign for each Tudor monarch. The first one is filled in for you.

Henry VII